

'A deeply moving, honest telling of the story.' Set in the magical space of Postlip's Great Hall

Tayo Aluko

I Got A Home in Barack

photo: sarah franklin

From Africa to the White House: A Journey of Resistance, Triumph and Spirituals

A musically illustrated talk exploring African pre-slavery history, Africans' resistance to white domination over the centuries, and their eventual triumph (symbolically at least) with the election and inauguration of Barack Obama to the Presidency of the United States

'Brilliant show, amazing depth of research, delicious script.'

7.30pm, Sunday, 25th April

The bar will be open from 7.00pm

Tickets £15.00

Cheques payable to:
Addressed to:

Postlip Society
Home in Barack Event, Postlip Hall,
Winchcombe, Cheltenham
Gloucestershire, GL54 5AQ., 01242 604015
www.postliphall.org.uk

Phone bookings:
Website:

Postlip Hall is situated behind Cleeve Hill just off the B4632, 7 miles from Cheltenham and 2 miles from Winchcombe.